Top Negotiator Attempts To Break Costly Strike

IRAQI CHIEF
SAYS REVOLT
IS SMASHED

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Premier Abdel Karim Kassam's regime claims it has smashed a pro-Red revolt and army mutiny in Iraq's northern oil fields, but press reports to Cairo and Damascus say clashes are continuing.

Arab dispatches said hundreds of casualties had resulted from the fighting which broke out Wednesday, while Iraq was celebrating the anniversary of Kassam's 1958 overthrow of the Iraqi monarchy. The entire northeast area was reported to have been in a state of near civil war.

Iraq's military governor, Ahmed Saleh Abdi, declared in a Baghdad broadcast that there had only been scattered clashes and that order had been restored.

From Baghdad also came an appeal by Kassam to "those who have strayed to go back to the right road." In the toughest tone he has yet used, Kassam declared: "We will settle accounts with any and all who attack the liberty of the people."

Reports from Cairo and Damascus, capitals of President Nasser's United Arab Republic, gave this account of the trouble.

Local army and police units in Kirkuk, a city of about 70,000 lying 150 miles north of Baghdad, clashed with Communist demonstrators last Wednesday and 27 persons were killed and 150 injured.

The local authorities had almost restored order when the 2nd Brigade of the 2nd Army Division mutinied, killed the deputy division commander, blew up bridges and seized strategic points in and around the city.

The bodies of at least 15 persons, including the commander and local officials, were hanged or dragged through the streets.

Incidents occurred elsewhere in Iraq, including a fatal attack on one of Kassam's top aides in Baghdad.

Kassam blasted the Kirkuk disorders in an anniversary speech before the altar at the Catholic Church of St. Mary in Baghdad.

"I strongly condemn what happened recently in Kirkuk," Kassam declared. "From this day onward, all units of the army will obey only an order emanating from headquarters."

On the eve of the anniversary, Kassam reorganized his cabinet. (Turn to Page Ten)

Coughanour joined the bank in 1950 as a night posting clerk. After serving in the Air Force during the Korean conflict, he returned to the institution and was accepted for its college work program.

While attending school, Coughanour worked part-time at the bank and studied under the institution's officer development program. He was graduated sixth in his class at Pitt's school of business administration.

Besides a college degree and a top banking post, determination has presented Coughanour with a third prize in the past month—a bride.

Inspection Deadline Few Days Away

With Derby Day only a short five days away, inspection by officials goes on, and, with the arrival of the official scale, weighing the racers also continues. Danny's car is sponsored by George's Friendly Service of Chandler Valley. Boys of the area will compete for an all-expense paid trip to Akron, O., where the national tournament will be held on August 16. The local Derby, sponsored by Dan's Chevrolet, Times-Mirror and the Jaycees, will be held next Saturday afternoon at McPherson Derby Downs. — Timesphoto by Shattuck.

Five Killed in Four-Car Crash
Near Hazelton

HAZLETON, Pa.—Five persons, including three children, were killed Sunday night in a four-vehicle crash near Hazelton. Seven were injured.

The dead were Andrew P. Yudiski, about 40, driver of a car involved; his wife, Ruth, 34, and their daughter, Mary Ann, about 5, of Berwick, R.D. 1; Rosalie Ann Killian, 2, and her brother, Roland Killian Jr., 7 months, of Shickshinny, R.D. 1.

The pileup occurred along Route 29 near Sybertsville, about seven miles from this north eastern Pennsylvania community, when a tractor-trailer hit the rear of another tractor-trailer and then veered across the road into two cars.

All of the dead and three of the injured were in the auto driven by Yudiski.

Also hospitalized in fair condition was Leon T. Walter, 37, of Mifflinburg R.D. 2, driver of the truck that crossed the road.

State police quoted him as saying his brakes apparently wouldn't hold and in trying to avoid crashing into the other rig, which had slowed down, his

Peasants Arriving for New Demonstrations for Castro

By ROBERT D. CLARK

HAVANA (AP)—Thousands of straw-batted, machete-carrying peasants are arriving early for a demonstration next Sunday of support for Fidel Castro and his agrarian reform program.

The revolutionary leader himself was in seclusion today. There was some speculation that he might not take back the prime minister's post he resigned Friday. Possibly he might pick someone to carry out his policies while he devotes most of his time to the land redistribution program. In any case he clearly will continue to boss Cuba.

The farmers were spilling into Castro's capital from as far as 500 miles away, answering the call of their bearded leader for 500,000 to attend the anniversary celebration of Castro's first unsuccessful attack July 26, 1953, on Fulgencio Batista's forces.

The first 5,000—from Oriente province—marched up Havana's famed Prado Sunday to a brass band.

Cuba meanwhile rocked along with a standstill government, waiting to learn what Castro plans to do. But the new president, Dr. Osvaldo Dorticos, told a Boston radio station by telephone that he considers Castro still is prime minister.

The 40-year-old lawyer also said that former President Manuel Urrutia (Turn to Page Ten)

Admiral Leahy
Dies of Cerebral
Vascular Accident

WASHINGTON (AP)—Admiral of the Fleet William Daniel Leahy, wartime chief of staff to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, died today.

The veteran naval officer, diplomat and senior adviser to the White House was 84.

The Navy said death resulted from a "cerebral vascular accident," the usual medical term for a stroke. Death occurred in Bethesda (Md.) Naval Hospital.

Leahy, who was the senior five-star officer elevated to that rank during World War II, was a native of Hampton, Iowa.

During a career which began in 1897, the year of his graduation from the Naval Academy, he served in four wars starting with the Spanish-American War. His next fighting assignments were during the Philippine Insurrection and in the Boxer uprising in China.

Leahy reached the peak of his service in the Navy in 1937 when he was appointed chief of naval operations.

After his retirement two years later he served successively as Governor of Puerto Rico and ambassador to France during the early stages of World War II.

In 1942 he was recalled to active duty as chief of staff to the commander in chief. In that capacity he was the senior member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and a member of the Combined Chiefs which included senior officers of principal allies of the United States.

81-Year-Old Woman
Is "Beauty Queen"

WHITEHALL, N.Y. (AP)—An 81-year-old former schoolteacher, Miss Arlene Manville, is reigning as beauty queen at the bicentennial celebration of this Lake Champlain village.

In crowning her, principal Ambrose Gilligan said: "Miss Manville's entire life has been one of beauty."

19-Year-Old Is Accused in "Mad
Dog" Slayings

QUAKER, Mo. (AP)—A coroner's inquest and a murder warrant today await a 19-year-old youth accused of the "mad dog" slaying of a former county judge and a teen-age girl.

Robert Carr, Washington County prosecuting attorney, said a first-degree murder warrant will be filed today against John Crump, described by Sheriff Thomas B. Allen as a "hard boiled punk."

Carr said Crump's 14-year-old accomplice, John Edward Davis, would be charged with delinquency.

Authorities said Crump told them the slaying spree Saturday night started as a plan to take the car of the slain man "to go out and have a big time."

Leonard (Lynn) Barr, 57, a former Washington County judge, was shot in his general store while preparing a sandwich for the two youths.

Sheriff Allen said the boys ran to Barr's home next door and shot his wife, Vallie, 52, when she refused to hand over the car keys. Crump clubbed the Barr's daughter, Ella Jo, 16, and her friend, Bobbie Lou Shipp, 17, of Belgrade, Mo., with his 12-gauge shotgun, the sheriff said. Bobbie Lou was killed. Mrs. Barr and her daughter are in critical condition at Bonne Terre (Mo.) Hospital. The shotgun was broken by the blows.

Davis and Crump are from Huzzah, Mo., 10 miles west of Quaker. Davis told authorities he had no active part in the slayings.

Fire Traps Subway

NEW YORK (AP)—Four hundred passengers faced the mounting threat of panic for 30 minutes Sunday when fire trapped two subway trains in a tunnel under the East River.

After the trains finished the trip from Queens to Manhattan, 63 passengers were treated at hospitals for smoke poisoning.

The fire started around a section of the electrified rail. A subway spokesman said later that sparks apparently ignited grease and dust.

West Readies
Counter Offer
For Gromyko

By HERB ALTSCHUL

GENEVA (AP)—The Western foreign ministers prepared today to reject the Soviet Union's demand for all-German negotiations on reunification. Instead the West will propose negotiations by the Big Four, with the East and West Germans helping as "advisers."

The Western counter proposal reportedly contained a provision that could provide for the direct German talks that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko demanded as one part of his price for a truce in Berlin.

Under the Western plan the Big Four commission could direct the West and East Germans to form a subcommittee to discuss specific items assigned by the parent commission. But any decision would still rest with the Big Four.

The Western ministers planned a strategy meeting this morning, a working luncheon with Gromyko and a semi-public plenary conference session this afternoon. The outline of the counter proposal was reached in a strategy session over the weekend held by U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville together with West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano.

Western officials called the counter proposal a compromise. But few, if any, expected the Soviets to accept the plan.

This group, known as the "Inner Six," is creating a tight economic community under leadership of France and West Germany.

Khrushchev Calls
Off Visit To Scandinavia

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today called off the visits to Scandinavian countries he had been planning for August.

The Swedish, Danish and Finnish governments made almost simultaneous announcements of Khrushchev's abrupt change of plans.

The Finnish government said it had been informed in Moscow this morning that "Khrushchev's visit to Denmark, Norway and Sweden had been postponed. As he is not visiting Scandinavia, he will have no opportunity this time to visit Finland."

The Soviet foreign ministry, in a note to Sweden, said the visit to Stockholm was called off because of "an anti-Soviet campaign" by the Swedish press and certain political leaders.

Many Swedish newspapers have been urging the government to call off the Khrushchev tour. Opposition parties, including the Liberals and Conservatives, have been arranging protest meetings.

The Norwegian labor government newspaper Arbeiderbladet also warned today that "reactionaries" were threatening disturbances in Oslo during Khrushchev's visit and said no action would be taken against them.

Khrushchev had been expected to arrive in Stockholm harbor with his wife and two daughters on the Soviet cruiser Sverdlovsk Aug. 15.

Only last Friday Khrushchev made a tough speech about Scandinavia at Szczecin, Poland. He charged that aggressive Western circles wanted to set up rocket bases in Scandinavia to draw Soviet nuclear retaliation away from themselves. Norway and Denmark are members of the North Atlantic Alliance.

A passing motorist, Frank Lamitina, of Warsaw, found the badly mangled body of Mary Jane Snow, of 126 Main St., Salamanca, lying on the road after it had been hit and dragged more than 60 feet by an unidentified vehicle.

Coroner J. M. Happell, of Salamanca, who rushed to the scene, pronounced the girl dead and issued a certificate of death due to a broken neck.

Miss Snow was reported to have left home about 2:30 o'clock with three companions enroute to Jamestown. They were William Smith, of Jamestown; Harriet Snow, of Sala-

SEPARATE

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower met with Secretary of Labor James F. Mitchell today for another discussion of the steel strike. As has been the case regarding the earlier conferences, the White House provided no detail on today's session.

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's top mediator today resumed efforts to get talks going again in the strike-bound steel industry.

Joseph P. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, and three key aides went into a private morning discussion with contract industry.

A similar session with the United Steelworkers Union's team was scheduled in the afternoon.

By WILLIAM A. SWARTWORTH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The government's top labor trouble-shooter, admittedly bucking big odds today attempts to break the costly steel strike deadlock.

Joseph P. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, had separate meetings scheduled in New York with contract negotiators for the basic steel industry and the United Steelworkers.

Rapidly spreading economic effects of the nationwide strike lent an air of urgency to the meetings. Nearly 90 per cent of the country's steelmaking capacity is shut off. Steel production losses entering the sixth day of the walkout totaled about 214 million dollars.

A half-million striking steelworkers counted pay losses amounting to some 50 million dollars.

Approximately 40,000 workers in related industries, chiefly coal and transportation, have been troubled.

IDLE — A half-million striking United Steelworkers employed in basic steel, plus an estimated 40,000 workers in related fields, principally coal and transportation.

NEGOTIATIONS — Federal mediation chief Joseph Finnegan meets separately in New York to day with industry and union negotiators. No joint bargaining talks scheduled.

DEVELOPMENTS — Two senators and two representatives criticize President Eisenhower's handling of dispute, urge government fact-finding and other proposals for settlement.

LOSSES — Steel industry production loss estimated at 214 million dollars entering sixth day of strike; wage losses counted at 50 million.

ISSUES — Union wants wage increase, improved fringe benefits. Industry contends any boost in labor costs would be inflationary; wants to eliminate what it calls certain wasteful work practices.

Meanwhile, her companions fell asleep, where they were found by investigating officers from the Sheriff's Department office at Little Valley.

Police report that many questions still remain unanswered including the identity of the driver of the hit-and-run vehicle.

Survivors were listed as her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cene Snow, three sisters and two brothers, all at home. The body was removed to a local funeral home, where final rites will be held at a time to be announced.

Climbs From College Boy

That speedy climb came to Hugh Coughanour, 29-year-old son of a Belle Vernon, Pa., coal miner.

The University of Pittsburgh graduate was named today as manager of Western Pennsylvania National Bank's New Eagle, Pa., community office now under construction near Monongahela, Pa.

"Frankly, this appointment as manager came as a surprise to me," said Coughanour, who now lives in nearby Elizabeth, Pa. "I hope this doesn't sound like the usual local employee talking, but I'm grateful for the opportunities—past, present and future—available at WPNB."

Going Abroad This Summer? AAA Provides Useful Hints

By ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—This is the year when everybody who is anybody seems to be going abroad.
Secretary of State Christian A. Herter already is in Geneva. No postal cards have arrived from Chris yet, but the impression is that he isn't having the time of his life.
Vice President Richard M. Nixon will spend a few days in Russia, wandering unobtrusively about, accompanied by 80 or so U. S. newsmen and assorted officials.
When Congress adjourns, many of our statesmen will find faraway problems and fly off in all directions, allegedly to study them.
But it's the more ordinary citizen who is making the greatest splash. By the end of the long summer 699,998 tourists will have visited one or more foreign countries. With so many of us in flight, it's appropriate that a satchel full of travel hints should arrive today from the American Automobile Assn.
The A.A.A. wastes no time getting down to business. One of its first admonitions is: "Don't tell foreigners how to run their governments." The travel boys are right, of course. If you know how to run a government, don't waste your knowledge on foreigners. We can use you, boy, in Washington.
You'd never guess it from reading the stuff on the diplomatic beat, but the most prevalent international question today doesn't pertain to the cold war. No, it's "how much should I tip?"
The A.A.A. devotes a third of a 45-page booklet exclusively to tipping. The problem is too complex to go into here, but this will show the traveler what he's up against:
A washroom attendant will be happy with 50 to 100 lire in Italy, 8 francs in Luxembourg, 50 ore in Norway and 1 sucre in Ecuador.
Fortunately for Nixon, the Russian policy is no tipping. But the taxi driver won't be upset, the AAA says, if capitalist Nixon slips him a ruble or two.
Even a simple "thank you" has its problems abroad. The AAA is pro-thank you and the big smile, but chips in with a word of caution.
"If a German offers you something to eat or drink, you won't get it if you reply with a 'thank you' (danke). To a German this is merely thanks for the offer. If you wish to accept you must say 'bitte' (please)."
Now for a few random observations:
Don't dress too informally in Germany. "The sight of a shirt hanging outside the pants looks peculiar to a German."
When in Rome, don't get hungry early. The dinner hour starts at 9 p. m.
Never wear a Bikini on the beaches of Spain.
But Scandinavia!
"Practice undressing discreetly on the beach. You won't always find bathhouses. The Scandinavians are very competent at this skill."
I like to think about the AAA scout studying Scandinavian undressing habits.
Looks like nice work—especially if you can spot an occasional female incompetent.

Death Continues Merry Ride On Chautauqua Roads

Rapp was on way to work at Furniture Express Co., where he has been manager for more than 20 years.
His car apparently went out of control and struck the end of a bridge railing at Cold Spring. Force of the impact knocked a part of the stone rail into the creek, tore a door from the car, pushed the left front wheel under the dash and demolished the car's front beyond recognition.
Jamestown and Fluvanna firemen had to pry open the wreckage before the victim could be removed.
Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. in Jamestown.
Warren County residents provided Chautauqua County with its 20th and 21st fatalities early in July. A passenger visiting here became the 22nd highway fatality in Chautauqua, all in a period of three days.

Commissioners End Assessment Hearings

County Commissioners have completed their formal hearings with property owners on the recent reassessment.
Nearly 500 taxpayers were heard by Commissioners Blaize Mead and Louis Crippen after residents had an informal hearing with reassessment personnel.
Mr. Mead from his desk today said that the Commissioners began work at 8 a. m. with property owners, leaving the Court House around midnight or 1 a. m. nightly.
Vast majority of the taxpayers left the hearings satisfied, Commissioner Crippen said.
On the last day of the hearings last week, 90 persons were scheduled to be heard. The formal hearings ran 12 days.
Eleven provinces comprise the Netherlands.

THE STEEL STRIKE

The wasteful process is now almost a week old. The sixth major strike in the steel industry since World War II is putting its blight upon the nation's economy.

Because of this stoppage, the country each day will lose 40 million dollars in steel output, and unionized steelworkers will give up 10 million in wages.

A number of assorted activities related to steel making must grind to a halt—iron mining, ore shipping, etc. Rail shippers are hard hit.

For a while some of the big users of steel, like the automobile industry and the makers of major household appliances, will not be too seriously affected. They have substantial stockpiles built up an anticipation of this strike.

But many others who depend upon steel as a manufacturing raw material will not be so fortunate if the walk-out lasts very long. They do not have the financial resources to amass a backlog.

Seldom has there been a more discouraging performance than the more than two months of futile negotiations which preceded the current strike. All the utterances from both sides suggested a despairing attitude from the outset.

This represents an important failure of intelligence. It casts doubt on the effectiveness of the bargaining process as now conducted. For not even an electron microscope could find evidence of progress in the extended steel wage discussions.

It is fair to ask whether tens of millions of Americans should be subjected to what will ultimately be general economic repercussions as the result of this barren, unyielding performance.

Whatever the particular interests of the negotiating parties, in the end the public interest has to be paramount in any negotiations which ramify so widely throughout the nation.

Few will argue that the public has been well served in the 1959 steel talks. The will to seek meaningful compromise has not been conspicuously present at the bargaining table.

Some day the men who do the negotiating for management and labor in steel may get back on the track and discover how to come up with reasonably prompt, sensible, mutually beneficial settlements.

Right now they're way off the track.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Each side in the steel dispute is beginning to look like a weightlifter who wears too-tight sleeves so he can bust the seams to show his muscles. Both sides have tremendous power, but if they keep up this posturing they'll be accused of overdoing it.

The steel union and the steel industry in their present strike-shutdown are following their own self-established pattern—a kind of slow, ritual dance which always ends the same way.

This is the pattern: the union asks higher wages; the industry says it cannot raise wages without boosting prices, too. Then a strike. Then the union gets a wage boost or other benefits and the industry raises prices.

That's the way it has been in 1949, in 1952, in 1953, in 1956, in strikes averaging 34 days. And that is the way it probably will happen again.

This time a little self-consciousness was forced on both sides by President Eisenhower who called on them not to do anything which would add to inflation.

He said the public wouldn't stand for it. There doesn't seem much the public can do—if the 10-year pattern is repeated—unless Eisenhower does something. As of now there is no sign he intends to do anything.

Since steel is a key industry—supplying 40 per cent of the raw materials for other manufacturers and products vital to most of the rest—what happens in steel can be expected to set off a chain reaction.

A steel wage boost, followed by a steel price boost, pretty surely will be followed by wage-price boosts elsewhere.

It was just this inflationary spiral Eisenhower had in mind

Here and There

While doing a little research for a subscriber about a double fatality back in the early summer of 1913, we came across a number of articles of interest to readers today. For instance there is the one in the June 14, 1913, issue of The Evening Mirror under the heading "Cornplanter Hotel Being Razed." The story goes on to say—"The old Cornplanter Hotel at Irvine, is being razed, and marks the end of one of the oldest landmarks in this county. The historic hotel was completed, says the Youngsville Enterprise, by Dr. William A. Irvine, after whom the village was named, and was immediately thrown open to the public. A Mr. Ketchum was the first landlord of the hotel, which, at that time, was considered to be the most modern in Warren county. Dr. William Irvine never conducted the hotel personally, but rented the building to various parties. The hotel was named after the Cornplanter Indians, who, at one time, roamed wild in the Brokenstraw region.

When the Pennsylvania Railroad extended its line from Irvine to Oil City the Hotel was discontinued. The Templors and the Redmen have used the Hotel for their lodge rooms, during their time at that place. Very few, if any members of these lodges, now live at that place, having either died or moved away from the beautiful valley of the Brokenstraw. Later it was turned into a tenement house. As many as four families have been sheltered in the building at one time. About 25 years ago the place was vacated, as the building was sorely in need of repairs and it has stood empty ever since. During the oil excitement the house enjoyed a large volume of business, as did most hotels. It was filled to its utmost capacity every night and many a night more were turned away for lack of accommodations, than were taken in. The building was constructed entirely of stone, which was quarried from the nearby hillside. These stones, many claim, at one time were used

Exemption Proposals Are Threat to Antitrust Laws

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The Federal Trade Commission's new chairman, Earl W. Kintner, says he is becoming increasingly alarmed by efforts to pass legislation granting exemptions which would break down the antitrust laws his agency must enforce.

One of the biggest drives of this kind has been put on this year by candy and tobacco wholesalers. Six bills have been introduced in the House to limit manufacturers in selling direct to retail outlets unless price differentials are established to protect the profit margins of competing wholesalers.

The Federal Trade Commission would be required to investigate every wholesaler whose business would be affected and determine what his profit margin should be.

This would put the government back in the price fixing business, says Kintner. It would completely eliminate price competition at the wholesale level in these businesses. It would be inconsistent with the free enterprise system and with the basic principle of antitrust law.

ANOTHER BILL WHICH WOULD MAKE FTC a price controller has been introduced by Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.). Its purpose is to check inflation. But it would require any corporation with over 10 million dollars in gross capital doing one-sixteenth of any line of business to file advance notice of contemplated price increases.

FTC would be required to hold public hearings within 30 days to determine justification for the price rise. Such a law might require a small army of examiners and enforcement officials, Kintner believes.

Four other bills have been introduced in the Senate this year to give automobile dealers a virtual monopoly to sell cars for higher prices in territories assigned to them by the auto manufacturers. Any dealer who sold a car outside his own territory would be required to pay a commission to the dealer in whose territory the sale is made.

General Motors was the only manufacturer testifying in favor of this bill. Kintner comments that, "It would not be good for General Motors and it would not be good for the country either, because it would not be in the best interests of the consumer."

ANOTHER BILL, INTRODUCED BY REP. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich.), would eliminate direct retail selling by automobile tire manufacturers. This would affect perhaps 5 per cent of the tire industry.

But if an exemption of this kind is made for the tire industry, Kintner points out, it would set a precedent for vacuum cleaner, brush and other manufacturers who sell door-to-door, direct to customers.

As far as can be observed now, little or none of this special privilege legislation will get through this year.

MOST OF THE BUSINESS REPRESENTATIVES supporting this legislation insist stoutly that they believe in the American free enterprise system.

What they seem to want, however, is unlimited competition in every line of business but their own. And there they want monopoly protection, in violation of the antitrust laws which were designed to protect consumers from the old time robber barons.

"So many business people try to run to Congress with their problems," comments Kintner, "instead of trying to meet honest competition head on. If Congress gave in to all of these requests, it would wreck the antitrust law, which need more enforcement,

Printing came to the Americas with the Spaniards, who built the first press in North America at Mexico City in 1539. One hundred years later a press was set up in Cambridge, Mass., the forerunner of many colonial presses which spread the fiery speeches of the patriots urging independence from England. Among the most famous of the early printers was the renowned statesman, author, patriot and inventor, who called himself simply "B. Franklin, printer."

OUR CURRENT FEARS ON CANCER

A relationship exists between cancer and overexposure to X-ray, radium, atomic fallout, rocks, soil, water). Fatalists, alarmists, and writers who love to make people squirm, have picked up this association and made many persons fearful, uneasy, and unhappy. The genetic effects are a different problem.

At present, the risk of getting a tumor from existing radiation is almost negligible. According to Dr. Austin M. Krues, bone tumor from a known source of radiation is about the same as the chance of developing lung cancer from smoking.

A cigarette per day. This ratio is not very high, considering the majority of victims of malignancy of the lung are heavy smokers.

Skin cancers were common among the X-ray pioneers because years ago radiologists did not know that overexposure led to malignancies. Leukemia also is more common in this group. The modern roentgenologist protects himself by wearing lead lined gloves and apron. But the risk of skin cancer from the sun is hundreds of times greater than from radiation, especially among those living in the south or southwest where sunshine is a daily affair.

All this does not mean that we should disregard fallout and use of X-ray and radium indiscriminately. Our scientists should keep daily tab on how much exposure we receive and continue to work on ways to nullify the effects of these rays on our bodies. After all, if more countries started experimenting with atomic bombs, the fallout would double or triple.

On the other hand, we must use good judgment. Safe radiation levels, at best, are educated guesses. We must not refuse to have the chest or stomach X-rayed because of fear of developing a tumor. These tests are lifesavers, particularly when they detect a serious disease. Leukemia is more common in children who are born of mothers who had the pelvis and abdomen X-rayed during pregnancy. Other youngsters give a history of having received X-ray treatment over an enlarged thymus gland during infancy.

Questions on medical topics will be answered by letter if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

Change your tactics. He lacks motivation, which may be provided in various ways. Have an athlete explain to him the advantages of a lean body. If your lad is indulging in consolation eating because of lack of affection, shower him with attention and he may be more willing to follow the dietary advice.

REPLY

A rest, or bland diet is the least upsetting. But it will have little effect if the basic emotional disturbance is not corrected.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—We have recently been told that 12,490,000 Americans own at least one share of stock and that the average stockowning family has a $7,000 a year income.

The New York Stock Exchange reports this 3,860,000 gain the last three years. How does it know? Did its team of census takers count all those noses and ask all of them about their fiscal affairs?

No, it was done by sample taking—that phenomenon of the modern government, business consumer and entertainment worlds.

There are many kinds of sample takings. The New York Stock Exchange believes it used a particularly good one. But it allows for a five per cent tolerance of error. That is, there might be 11,865,500 stockholders or maybe 13,114,500—either figure enough to put a gleam in a broker's eye.

American shareowner characteristics were determined—also by approved sampling methods—in interviews with 600 of them. To reach the grand totals statisticians used involved mathematical formulas that might have given even Einstein pause.

The big problem is taking the census was to eliminate duplications, since many individuals appear on several corporate stockholder lists.

By examining names and addresses of 50,000 unduplicated stockholders the canvassers arrived at their ratio between ratio between male and female owners and their geographic distribution.

A random sample of 600 of these was selected for lengthy interviews and from these came the data offered as to the characteristics of stockholders as a whole: age, occupation, income, education, how they got their first shares.

Average it out—and apply the ratios to the entire estimated 12,490,000—and you get such fascinating bits of information as that half of the shareowners are in the $5,000 to $10,000 income range, that on average they hold 3.5 different stock issues, and that the geographical center of the shareowner population moved southwest during the last three years from Kosciusko County, Indiana, to Sangamon County, Illinois.

MRS. WESTON WARREN WILCOX

Palms and white gladioli decorated Russell Methodist church July 11 for the marriage of Janet Marie Houck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Houck of Meadville, to Weston Warren Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilcox of Akeley RD 2.

The gown, of nylon tulle and chantilly lace over satin, had a basque bodice of lace, featuring long, fitted sleeves, an illusion yoke, and Peter Pan collar embroidered with iridescent sequins and pearls. The floor-length bouffant skirt of tulle was accented with inserts of the same lace. Her fingertip veil was caught to a crown of pearls and sequins and her earrings were pearls, also. Complementing her outfit, she carried a white orchid with lily of the valley-knotted streamers.

Carol Bailey, maid of honor, and Maxine McKinley of Franklin, the bridesmaid, wore gowns of light aqua silk organza with matching headbands and shoes. Their flowers were cascades of white and yellow carnations, with daisies and streamers, and their pearl necklaces and bracelets were gifts from the bride.

Completing the bridal party, Jackson E. Wilcox of Russell was best man for his brother; ushering were the bridegroom's cousin, Thomas Knapp, Jamestown; Lyle Porter, Raymond Stanton, and Frank Wilcox.

Graduate of Eisenhower High School in 1957 and of Bryant Stratton Business Institute in Buffalo, the bride has been employed by Warren Bank and Trust Company and part-time at Crossroads Restaurant. Mr. Wilcox, graduate of Sugar Grove High School in '56, was employed by New Process Company before entering the Navy in 1957. MRS. JOHN THOMAS HOFMANN, JR.

Miss Carol Rae Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Barrett of North Warren, and John Thomas Hofmann, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hofmann of Buffalo, were married Saturday, July 18, in First Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Donald H. Spencer solemnized the double ring ceremony. Music was provided by Professor Lee Holden of Oberlin College, organist and former teacher of both the principals; Mrs. Anthony Papalia, harpist and Oberlin classmate of the young couple; and Robert Dietrich, tenor, a cousin of the bride.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a ballerina gown of Schmitt-embroidered silk organza, fashioned with a scalloped sash and neckline in the basque bodice, bouffant skirt, and brief sleeves, complemented with matching mitts which tapered over the hands. Her elbow-length veil of French illusion was attached to a net leaf band, and she carried a cascade of white glamoire and ivy.

Miss Ann Lesser, Warren, attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Barrett of North Warren, cousin of the bride, and Miss Eleanor Hoffman of Buffalo, sister of the bridegroom. All wore white sheer over white taffeta with a yellow floral motif. Miss Lesser's cascade of white shasta pom poms was tied with yellow satin, while the others carried yellow pom poms tied with white.

Carl Staplin, Buffalo, served as best man. Ushers were Gordon Page, Detroit, Mich.; Jere Cohen, Alpena, Mich.; and Lawrence Matthews, Jackson, Mich.

Is Baptist Speaker

Dr. Carl S. Winters, Oak Park, Ill., who has achieved a national reputation as one of America's foremost inspirational speakers and humorists, will be the keynote speaker for the 125th birthday celebration of First Baptist church in mid-August.

Comments from his audiences, both here and abroad, are in the nature of superlatives: "The finest address we have ever had for commencement"; "He is a dynamic Institute speaker and pleased more people than any other speaker we have had in years"; "... greatest impression ever made by a Commencement speaker"; and, "As a speaker, he is difficult to surpass".

This year, Dr. Winters has addressed more than 150,000 school teachers, special educators, and community leaders in institutes, conventions and commencements, besides hundreds of church, business and professional groups throughout this country and around the globe.

He speaks from a background of 20 years as minister to a church of over 1,500 members, also as head of the Skid Row Commission of the 1,600 churches of Chicago; as a youth leader and educator.

Dr. Winters lectures from a broad background of human experience and with unusual ability to inspire, instruct and entertain. He is one of the outstanding platform men of the day. One prominent educator said of him recently: "He is a rival of the great Russell Conwell of 'Acres of Diamonds' fame".

Choosing the theme "Hats Off to the Past; Hats Off to the Future", Dr. Winters will speak in First Baptist church at 11:00 a. m. on August 16, with his message broadcast by the local radio.

Ten Hurt in Accidents Over Weekend

Nearly demolished station wagon of George Lute, Alverda, Pa., rests at the bottom of a 40-foot embankment near Tidoute early Saturday morning after a snapped axle and flat tire caused the vehicle to take the damaging plunge. Inside of the wagon was loaded with camping gear, a motor boat attached on behind. Four were injured in this mishap, the first of five on Route 62 the past weekend. Photo by See.

Route 62 was accident prone over the weekend, five auto crashes on that route injuring 10 persons and causing $7,500 damages.

One accident on 62 at North Warren Saturday evening injured: Mary Graham, 16, of 510 Fourth, multiple lacerations; a passenger in her car, an uncle, Robert Crossett, RD 2, lacerated right arm, multiple abrasions; Russell Maio, 28, of Jamestown, multiple lacerations and abrasions; and a passenger in his car, Tony Conti, 19, of Jamestown, laceration of neck. Crossett was discharged after treatment. The others are reported in "good" condition today.

Another accident early Saturday morning on Rte 62 two miles north of Tidoute, injured George Lute, Alverda, multiple bruises; his wife, Alma Lute, fractured left leg; and their two children, Samuel, lacerated scalp and right leg; and Kathy Lute, multiple bruises. Mrs. Lute and her son were hospitalized.

Sunday, George Dutrow, 50, of Latrobe, was struck by a car and sustained a compound fracture of the left leg while walking along Route 62 about 2 miles north of Tidoute to another accident. Injured in the first accident was Marjorie Russell, 22, of New Castle, a lacerated scalp and Edward Russell, New Castle, laceration of left elbow.

First weekend accident happened at 5:30 a. m. Saturday morning just above Tidoute. George Lute of Alverda, Indiana, was going north when his camping equipment-laden station wagon plunged down a 40-foot embankment. State Police, who investigated all five accidents, said a broken axle and a flat tire caused Lute's accident. He was pulling a motor boat on a trailer behind his station wagon.

Near State Police barracks on the three-lane at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, two cars were demolished and damages estimated at $3,500 were sustained when the autos met head on. Driving toward Warren was Russell Maio, 23, of Jamestown. His car went into a skid, hit the right curb and bounced into the north-bound traffic slamming head on into an auto driven by 16-year-old Mary Graham of Warren. Louis Gebhart, 17, of Russell, rammed the Graham car, which he was following, when it came to a sudden stop.

At 10:45 p. m. Saturday, the only accident in which no injuries resulted occurred about 1 mile north of Tidoute. Bonnie Helms, 16, of Carnegie, missed a driveway and was in the process of turning around on the highway when she was struck by a car driven by Darlene Crawford, 16, of Pittsburgh. Police estimated damages at $500.

Sunday morning at 9:10 a. m. about 2 miles north of Tidoute, Edward Russell, 32, of New Castle, plunged over an embankment and caused about $1,500 damages to his car. Russell was following another car which had slowed, and attempting to stop, the New Castle auto skidded over the bank.

Five minutes later, George Dutrow of Latrobe, who was walking to the above accident, was struck by a car driven by John Chittester, 51, of Monongahela. Dutrow received a broken left leg. He is a patient in Warren General Hospital.

Oil Centennial Proclamation

WHEREAS the first commercially successful oil well in the United States was completed by Colonel Edwin L. Drake at Titusville, Pennsylvania, on August 27, 1859, and

WHEREAS that historic event ushered in a new era of progress for America by supplying its people with an abundant and inexpensive source of energy, and

WHEREAS since that day, the competitive units of the petroleum industry have proved to be versatile public servants by providing all of us with gasoline, fuel oil, lubricants, rubber, plastics, insecticides, fertilizers, paints, asphalt, medicines, and a host of other useful products that make life more bountiful and secure, and

WHEREAS the many oil men and women of this community and throughout the nation are this year celebrating the 100th anniversary of the birth of their industry, and are hopeful that their neighbors will join in this observance, particularly during the month of August.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William E. Rice, Burgess of Warren, do hereby proclaim the month of August, 1959, to be Warren's Oil Centennial Month and do direct the attention of all residents of this community to the contributions made to their health, prosperity, and security by members of the American oil industry, as well as to that industry's support of freedom, democracy, competitive enterprise, and other rights and privileges that are part of the proud heritage of this nation.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and have caused the seal of Warren to be affixed.

Russell Drivers To Winner's Circle In Stateline Feature

Hyle Russell, Kane, won the Mid-Season championship there Saturday.

Of the nine programs presented by Stateline this summer, all but one of the feature events has been taken by a Keystone driver.

Saturday's main go was slated for 50 laps, but was cut to 44 by a sudden thunder-shower. Squirt Jones of Brockway was second to Russell, a good half-lap behind.

Leon Lindstrom, North East, sustained minor injuries when his car veered out of control during the 20th lap of the feature. His machine slipped and other car, then became the "meat" of a metal sandwich when a third vehicle slammed in.

Stateline officials announced a mid-season jolopy championship has been added to the summer program. Open to all cars with non-overhead engines, it will be staged Thursday, Aug. 6.

William Murdoch, British engineer, lighted his home in 1792 with gas produced by heating coal in an iron retort.

Vet Coach Says U. S. Supremacy Is In Jeopardy

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—American track and field supremacy is in jeopardy, veteran coach Frank Potts intimated today.
Potts, coach of the triumphant men's team in the past weekend's big international meet against the Soviet Union, tempered victory thus:
"We must improve in indistance running and the walking event at the same pace the Russians have been improving in field events and sprints or we'll be in trouble."
The time is coming when we are really going to have to improve our over-all program. We are strong in the field events and runs up to and including 1,500 meters. We need walkers and distance men.
The University of Colorado coach was pleased with his team's 127-106 victory over the Soviet men, but said he couldn't help but think in terms of the future.
Potts declined to speak for the American women's team, which as expected was troubled by the Soviet girls, 67-40. He said the women's committee faced a much greater problem than the men's. This was obvious as the Soviet distaff athletes made off with 8 out of 10 possible first places.

Miller Allows Base On Balls In Blanking Solar

Clark Miller and New Castle Future AC squad shut out Solar Electric Bombers Sunday 1-0.
A new capacity crowd was on the bleachers at West Side Field to see Miller whitewash the Bombers, shipping a base-on-balls to Jack White, the New Castle hurler's only misdeed to winning a perfect game. White was thrown out on an attempted steal.
Miller pitched to the minimum of 21 batters over the seven inning route.
Futures nudged across the game's only run in first inning on a bunt single, two sacrifice bunts and a sacrifice fly by Mooney.
Visiting team threatened in each third and fifth innings, but Zeke Zelasko bore down to hold Futures outside the door throughout remainder of the softball tilt.
Zelasko was assisted by "some sparkling defensive plays on the part of the Bombers, especially Dick White, who made several dazzling plays at third base."
Veteran followers of the softball game here, were high in praise for both teams. They felt that Futures were the finest team to appear in Warren for several years.
Bombers have return engagements, date to be announced.

Duke Snider and Gil Hodges Remind of Old-Time Dodgers

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
It is just like old times for the Dodgers. Duke Snider and Gil Hodges are hitting home runs. Clem Labine is winning in relief. And an important series with the Giants is coming up next.
The old rivalry that flourished in Brooklyn and New York seems to have lost little of its vigor transplanted 3,000 miles west in Los Angeles and San Francisco.
The Giants' National League lead measured 2 1/2 games with the second place Dodgers coming to town Monday for a two-game series.
Pittsburgh shaved the Giants' lead a half game Sunday when Bill Virdon's eighth-inning home run beat the pace setters 3-2 in the first game of a scheduled doubleheader. The second game went only two innings before it was postponed because of the Sunday curfew.
Los Angeles gained ground although it had to settle for a split.

at Philadelphia Hodges' three-run homer and Snider's blast helped the Dodgers win the opener 8-4 behind Labine's relief work. Eddie Bouchee's two-run double gave the Phils a 3-2 second game, cut to 5 1/2 innings by rain.
Milwaukee continued its tailspin, losing its sixth straight as St. Louis mounted a 16-hit attack for a 9-5 victory. Curt Flood drove in three runs with a homer and double, Ken Boyer hit his 18th homer, Don Blasingame had four hits and Bill White drove in two runs with two doubles.
About 30,000 fans waited for 90 minutes in Wrigley Field before a doubleheader between Cincinnati and the Chicago Cubs had to be postponed because of rain.
Hodges' 17th homer clinched the first game for the Dodgers as it came with Jim Gilliam and Snider on base. They started strong in the second game, but the Phils got to Johnny Podres for three big runs while Taylor Phillips pitched effectively in the clutch.

Suspension of Olmedo Appears As Possibility

By JOE MOOSHL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—The possibility arose today that Alex Olmedo, Wimbledon champion and Davis Cup star, might be suspended for his showing at the National Clay Court Tennis Tournament last week.
A suspension could keep Olmedo out of the challenge round of the Davis Cup matches at Forest Hills, N.Y., next month.
The Clay Court Championships Committee huddled over the affair Sunday when the finals of the National Clay Court Tournament were postponed because of rain.
It was learned the committee, though only a fact-finding body, recommended to the U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. that Olmedo be suspended but did not specify any period of time.
Ralph Westcott chairman of the committee, said his group agreed unanimously to evidence submitted by River Forest Tennis Club officials who accused Olmedo of throwing his quarter-final match to Abe Segal of South Africa Thursday.

Zach Wheat Will Become Member Of Hall of Fame

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y. (AP) — Baseball's high officials, playing great of the past and present and plain fans gathered in this cradle of the national game today. The chief reason for the conclave was formal enshrinement of Zachariah Davis (Zach) Wheat in Baseball's Hall of Fame. And as part of the annual show, the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Kansas City Athletics play an exhibition game on Doubleday Field.
Wheat, who established more records than any other player in the history of the Brooklyn Superbas and later the Dodgers, is the 44th star of the past to have his name placed in the Hall of Fame established 20 years ago.

Rockets Send Onoville Nine Off With 11-3 Loss in Weekend Game

Warren Rockets tallied a decisive victory over Onoville of Chautauque County League Saturday at State Hospital, allowing the visiting New Yorkers one run every third inning.
Rockets put Onoville down in 11-3 winning fashion in an independent tilt.
Onoville sluggers clipped Ken Thompson for 3 hits, while the Rockets took 8 hits off three New York hurlers.
Two-for-four hitting of Cummings and Thompson, 3-for-5 batting of Castagnino sparked the Rocket hitting.
Thompson aided his own cause by batting in three runs, Lobdell clubbed home two, hitting one double.
Rockets launched with a 2-run edge, Onoville cut the edge to 3-2 in their half of opening inning. Warren combine chalked up two more runs in fifth, New Yorkers followed suit with one. Rockets scored their sixth run in sixth inning, added four in seventh and one in eighth to end their scoring. Onoville clobbered their third and final run in remaining minutes of ninth.

Yanks Pop Right Back Into Thick of Fight in American

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Just when you get ready to count the Yankees out, they pop right back into the thick of the American League fight.
A week ago, after losing an entire 5-game series in Boston, they were dead. On Friday morning they were very much alive with a series sweep over Cleveland.
The magic of Early Wynn and Bob Shaw gave Chicago the first two games of an important weekend series. Once again they were ready to hang the crepe on Casey Stengel's office door.
But the Yankees knocked the lid off the coffin Sunday by sweeping two from Chicago. The explosion knocked the White Sox out of first place. The Cleveland Indians, who had been eased out of the lead by the Yankees, regained "control" by 601 percentage. New York is 5 1/2 back.
Stengel found help from unexpected sources in his Sunday sweep, ending a streak of eight straight Sunday defeats dating back to June 7. In the first game it was 43-year-old Enos Slaughter, oldest active player in the majors, hitting a pair of two-run homers in a 6-2 victory for Whitey Ford.

Ted Williams Again Strains His Back

BOSTON (AP) — Ted Williams' back neck miseries again.
The 40-year-old defending American League batting champion strained his neck and back swinging at a pitch in the first game of Boston's doubleheader with Cleveland Sunday.
Williams is still injured the neck in spring training and missed the first 25 games of the season.
Red Sox trainer Jack Fadden said, Williams probably will be able to play in the coming road series in Chicago.
Also on the sidelines for the Red Sox is Jackie Jensen, the American League's most valuable player last year. Jensen is out with a foot injury.

Hard-Hitting Featherweights To Meet Tonight

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Harold Gomes and Paul Jorgenson, two of the hardest hitters from the featherweight division, tonight battle for the re-activated junior lightweight world championship.
Cloudy, cool weather was forecast for the 10 p.m. (EDT) 15-rounder which was expected to draw 10,000 fans to Pierce Memorial Field.
Not since Sandy Saddler defeated Orlando Zulueta for the crown in 1949 had there been any star in the 130 pound class.
Gomes, a clever 25-year-old home town favorite, and Jorgenson, 23-year-old part-time businessman from Port Arthur, Tex., were facing a rematch. Gomes beat Jorgenson in a fast-moving 10 rounder last march in Miami in a unanimous decision.
When the National Boxing Assn. brought the Junior Lightweight Division back into circulation last month, Gomes was ranked No. 2 feather challenger and Jorgenson No. 3.
Never stopped. Jorgenson numbers 30 knockouts among his 77 triumphs. He lost six and fought four draws.
Gomes, a slight favorite off his previous showing against Jorgenson, has a 44-4 record.
No television and only local radio coverage is planned for the title bout, fourth in Rhode Island's history.
Johnny Dundee won the first junior lightweight crown in 1921. Among the champions since then have been Steve (Kid) Sullivan, Benny Bass, Kid Chocolate and Saddler.
Peter Alliss of England won Italian, Portuguese and Spanish Open golf crowns in 1958.

Calhoun Wins Split Decision Over Tiger

By JIM KOCH
SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Sleepy-eyed Rory Calhoun, winner of a 10-round split decision, said today he had to chase Dick Tiger to make the fight.
Most of Friday night's crowd of 1,320 thought differently. They howled and tossed refuse into the ring after Judges Dick Fazio and Harold McGrath awarded the last three rounds to Calhoun and a 6-4 margin.
Referee Joe Palmer saw the middleweight scrap 5-3-2 for Tiger. So did the AP.
Calhoun, from White Plains, N.Y., closed last June 5 in New York's Madison Square Garden to earn a draw with Tiger in a fight good enough to win a quick rematch.
Friday night's effort probably sent a nationwide television and radio audience to bed early.
Calhoun, 24, and five years younger than Tiger, showed more aggressiveness toward the end. This probably impressed Fazio and McGrath.
The win boosted Calhoun's record to 40-7-2.

Batdorf Winner of the Pennsylvania Amateur

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A missed two-foot putt gave Bob Batdorf of Reading the Pennsylvania Amateur golf championship over the week-end.
The match was tied until defending champion Fred Paine of Pittsburgh's Oakmont Country Club blew the two-footer on the 18th hole at Allegheny Country Club Saturday.
His miss came after he squared the match on the 17th hole with a difficult 15-foot putt. Batdorf, a 28-year-old broker, won 1-up.
On Preamble day in 1931, Jockey Joe Guerra rode five winners in six races.

Jamestown Moose Drop Fighting Under Black Knights 6-3 Blast

Betts Black Knights fought down Jamestown Moose for the second time this softball season, 6-3 on West Side Field Saturday afternoon.

Meeting earlier in the season, Betts defeated the Moose, who had their 17-game win streak snapped recently in their league play.

Centerfielder Tom Letrent had a perfect day at the plate, 2-for-2 and scoring two runs. Bonavita was 2-for-3, slapping two doubles.

John Berdine started on the mound for Warren, going all the way and allowing six hits to the Moose.

Steel-clad man of Betts started scoring bottom of second with two runs. Tom Letrent homered to right center to begin the action. Rico Bonavita followed with his first double.

Pitcher Berdine stepped in batter's box and drove a single down third base line, pulling in second run for Knights.

Darkmen hit paydirt again in third with Bud Berdine's lead-off single and two subsequent bingles by Bill Massa and Letrent. Bonavita hit his second double, rode to third on Pete Molinaro's sharp single to center, and scored on a fly out to left.

Last scoring efforts of Betts came in sixth on a walk, a miscue, a deep fly out to center and an overthrow back to the infield. Result: two runs, Betts leading 6-0.

Berdine kept Jamestown in check until seventh inning when the anti-men ruined his chances for a shutout. With a walk and Gregor's single, first sacker Aldrich stepped up, scoring a home run across right center, pushing across three runs.

Knight hurler regained control and sank following three Moose batters.

Second game of the proposed double header was called after 3½ innings when showers dampened efforts. Betts had a six-run lead when the game was called.

WIN SHOVS PIRATES INTO TIE FOR 3RD

PITTSBURGH (AP) — It took the Pittsburgh Pirates 5½ hours to polish off the San Francisco Giants, but the Bucs agree it was time well spent.

The 3-2 victory came Sunday in the first game of a rain-interrupted doubleheader. It was the Pirates' first victory against the league-leading Giants in three home games of the latest series.

Rain delayed the game three times, accounting for 2 hours and 53 minutes.

The second game was called by the curfew law with the Pirates leading 1-0 after two innings. The game will be replayed later.

Billy Virdon's fourth homer of the year in the eighth inning earned the Bucs the victory. The triumph put Pittsburgh into a tie for third place with the Milwaukee Braves, losers of six straight.

A crowd of 27,992 watched Vernon Law pick up his 11th victory against five defeats in a tight pitching duel with Stu Miller. Law gave up eight hits and struck out three while Miller allowed six hits and fanned six.

Danny Kravitz and Billy Mazeroski chipped in with a double and a single each. Orlando Cepeda homered for the Giants in the fourth.

The Pirates play Kansas City in Cooperstown, N.Y., today in the annual Hall of Fame game. Harvey Maddix, Don Gross and Ron Blackburn were scheduled to do the pitching for the Pirates.

The Bucs meet Philadelphia at Forbes Field Tuesday night. Prior to the regular game, a suspended contest will be played.

Lane Gets Clean-Up Man, Last Laugh in Francona

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—To win a pennant, a club generally has to obtain help from unexpected sources. Cleveland got it, so the Indians have led the American League parade practically all the way along the route.

In late March, Joe Gordon told the Cleveland baseball writers that Vic Power would be the Tribe's third baseman and Larry Doby the All-Star first baseman.

Three days later, Frank Lane traded Doby to the Tigers for John Paisy Francona, a well-constructed Italian who had been around and about and was beeping about not being given a fair chance in the Detroit outfield.

GENERAL MANAGER LANE, who has made more shrewd swaps than David Harum, was panned unmercifully in Cleveland and elsewhere for "trading an established, if somewhat fading, star for a nonentity."

While he was being criticized, Lane, in defense, pointed out that he had exchanged a 34-year-old player for one nine years younger who had shown definite signs that he might make it. "What can I lose?" asked Trader Lane as the dissenters insisted that he was "either drunk or crazy."

IF THERE IS A POSITION in baseball more important than shortstop it is center field, and the Indians filled the two crucial spots from unexpected sources.

Tito Francona's bat not only drove Jimmy Piersall out of center field, but made the six-foot, 185-pound resident of Aberdeen, S.D., the Cleveland clean-up man.

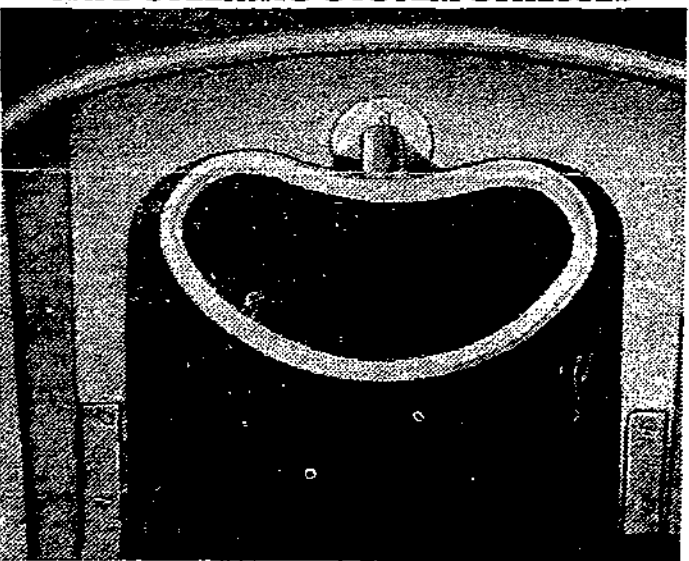

Francona gave the Indians the fourth big hitter a club needs to prevail, swinging behind Power and Minnie Minoso and ahead of Rocky Colavito.

"He's adequate in the field, runs exceptionally well and has won at least 10 games with the bat," says Lane. "He's a left-hand pull hitter with power and the best thing about him is that he appears solid at the plate."

"IF THERE IS A WEAKNESS in his armor, it's his arm, but then, how many runners are thrown out from the outfield these days? "Colavito, for example, can throw the ball through a brick wall and accurately, but how many runners does he throw out from right field?"

As for the other half of the Francona barter, the last word on Doby was that the White Sox, who obtained him from the Tigers, had sent the veteran out for a physical examination.

SAFE STEERING SYSTEM STRESSED

Safety is the keynote in the construction of a Soap Box Derby car. Building a safe and sound steering system is one of the most important steps. Every car must have a closed steering wheel or half wheel as shown above. The wheel, not less than 7½ inches in diameter, must be firmly attached to the steering shaft.

Woman Racer of The Opinion That Men Are Superior

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Women drivers are just not in the same league with men."

The woman who says this ought to know. She's Josie von Neumann who's been racing against men the last seven years and will compete in Sunday's 150-mile Grand Prix sports car race at Riverside International Raceway.

"The best woman driver will never measure up to a good male driver," says 27-year-old Josie.

"She doesn't have the right mental attitude. A woman is more flighty than a man. I think women lack a certain amount of concentration and they have a stronger feeling of self-preservation."

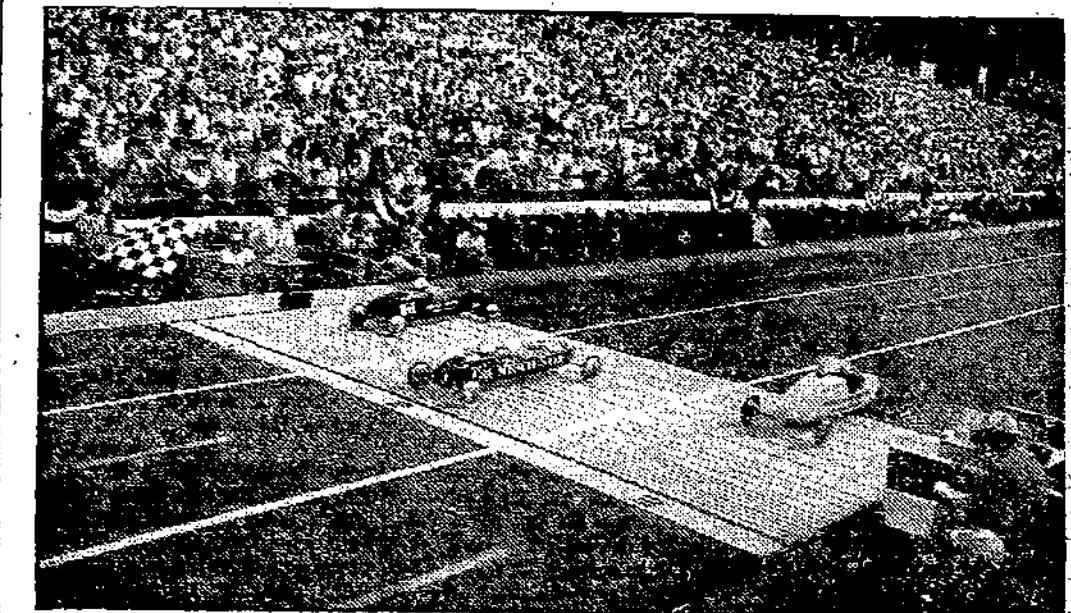

Is she talking about racing only, or does this hold true in traffic too? "Anywhere," said Josie. "We girls are just not as competent as men."

Josie grew up in sports car racing. Her stepfather, now di-forced from her mother, Johnny von Neumann, one of the country's top drivers. Josie, 5-foot 4 and brown-eyed, is a divorcee, has no children.

FALLOUT SHELTERS are the best way for rural Americans to protect themselves from a massive nuclear attack which could unleash dangerous radioactive fallout throughout the country. Some of the shelters recommended by the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization are not as elaborate as this one, which includes an auxiliary generator and an electric air filtering and ventilating system. However, all recommended shelters should include the basic features shown here—a place to sleep; food, water and medical supplies, and at least eight inches of concrete or an equal weight of other materials for shielding the shelter against fallout. Free designs may be obtained by writing to OCDM Rural Civil Defense, Battle Creek, Mich. (OCDM Photo)

IN THIS NUCLEAR AGE

CD's a Vital Part of Farm Safety

Civil and Defense Mobilization Director Leo A. Hoegh in a Farm Safety Week statement urges farmers to accept Rural Civil Defense as a vital part of farm safety in this nuclear age.

Mr. Hoegh pointed out that fallout from nuclear attack on key military, metropolitan and industrial centers could cover hundreds of thousands of square miles of the United States.

"EVERY FARM family, no matter how remote it may be from a target," he said, "should build a family fallout shelter and stock it properly. This means providing a two-week supply of food and water, a battery radio, a first-aid kit, flashlights, bedding and other items that would be essential to your survival."

Mr. Hoegh said Farm Safety Week, July 19-25, serves to remind farmers of the need to recognize and support the objectives of the Farm Division of the National Safety Council.

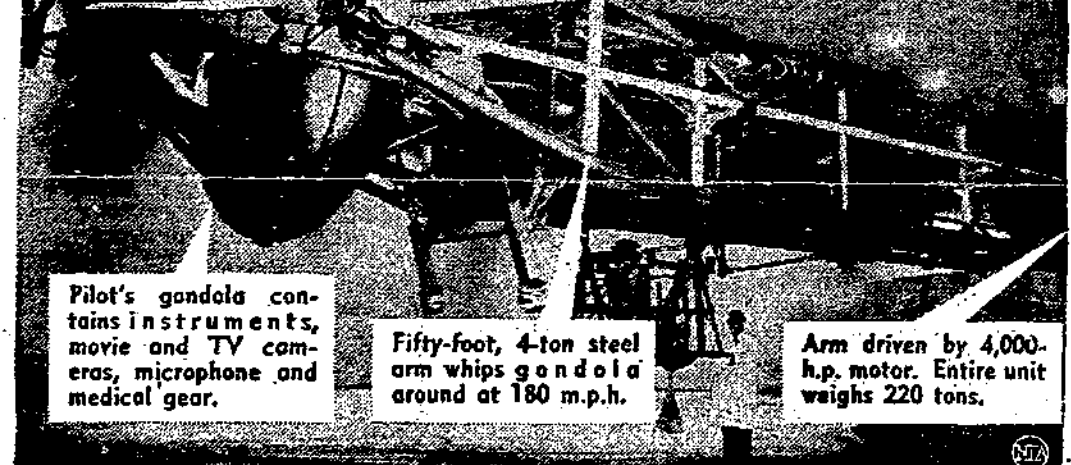

He said: "This nation cannot survive and recover from attack without its farmers. Rural America has always carried a heavy burden in times of national emergency. In this nuclear age, it is more important than ever before."

Mr. Hoegh pointed out that fallout is one menace of thermonuclear attack against which simple protective measures can be taken.

"It need not kill," he said. "It is up to you to take action. Nobody can do it for you, any more than they can ship you a packaged civil defense from a factory."

"SURVIVAL WILL always be a personal thing. What you know and do will determine whether you—and your family—will live to help the nation survive."

Director Hoegh said free plans and designs for various shelters can be obtained by writing to OCDM Rural Civil Defense, Battle Creek, Mich.

SHAKEDOWN CRUISE FOR SPACEMEN—The Navy is using this biggest and fastest human centrifuge in the world to test the effects of space travel on tomorrow's astronaut. When man returns from space, his tiny satellite will crash into the top of the atmosphere with the same crumpling force as if he drove an auto into a brick wall at 50 m.p.h. The centrifuge, located at the Aviation Medical Acceleration Laboratory in Johnsville, Pa., will reproduce this and other forces. It can ram the pilot into his seat under a load of 40 times the force of gravity—40 G's for short. The centrifuge was successfully used in the development of the X-15 rocket space plane.

Senate Republican Leader James S. rute, whom Castro forced out of office Friday, was in no danger in Cuba and probably would remain in the country. Urrutia was at the heavily guarded home of his brother-in-law outside Havana. Dorfon said the guard had been requested by the ex-president.
Castro accused Urrutia of near treason because he had spoken of a Communist menace in Cuba after the ex-chief of the Cuban air force, Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz, told a U.S. congressional committee that Castro and leaders of his government were Communists.
Castro's attack on Urrutia found strong support among the Cuban masses, but the reaction in some middle and upper class circles was adverse. The president, a former judge, was considered a moderate, and the business community felt his departure had removed a brake on the revolutionary forces.

Weather Prevents Pilots From Flying In For Breakfast

Weather disappointed airplane enthusiasts who turned out for the "fly-in" breakfast at Warren airport Sunday morning.

Due to rain and storms, pilots expected to visit here, about 40, failed to reach Warren, only 10 made it, one coming in from Detroit Saturday night and Aerial Commander arriving in Warren from Buffalo by instruments Sunday.

The Buffalo pilot gave a demonstration of flying over the field at 200 MPH with only one engine.

Contests in the afternoon for pilots included balloon chasing, a bomb-dropping contest, won by pilot Bill Dyke and a hammer throw by Reynolds. One-hundred sacks of flour were dropped on six-by-six foot targets.

Roby Algren, member of the Jamestown Sky Divers, made four jumps during the day. After making the 99th jump of his career, Algren drew winners' names for the prizes. The Jamestown jumper went back up in the air and made his 100 jump, dedicating it to Shirley Bhatgate. Sheffield, winner of the grand prize, Mark Nagle, of Darhmouth, was second prize winner.

Ten other persons' names drawn by Algren were given airplane rides over Warren Co. Some of the planes made pasture hops from Warren to Jamestown, landing there, and then returning to Warren.

Adjournment Date for 1959 Congress Still Big Toss-Up

By JOE F. KANE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Adjournment date for the 1959 Congress still is a big toss-up.

In its path are five major legislative hurdles: civil rights, labor regulation, housing, highways, and interest rates. Committee action on four of the five is scheduled this week.

Many members are resigned to being in session into September. Some hope to finish around Aug. 22. No one is looking for a July wrap-up.

Still on the calendar are these major measures:

Civil rights: Most members agree this is the major hurdle. An inkling on prospects in this field may come today when the Senate Judiciary Committee meets to consider a relatively simple bill approved last Wednesday by a subcommittee.

Labor regulation: A labor-management bill generally regarded as more acceptable to organized labor than the Senate version will be voted on formally Wednesday by the House Labor Committee.

Housing: Public hearings on

President Eisenhower's veto of housing legislation start Thursday before the Senate Housing subcommittee. Some Democrats still are talking of trying to override the veto. A more likely course appears to be passage of another housing bill, perhaps just before adjournment.

Highways: Proposals on how to finance the nation's big highway construction program will be heard by the House Ways and Means Committee starting Wednesday. There has been pretty much of a deadlock on the program, with Eisenhower demanding a gasoline tax increase—a move opposed by Democratic leaders. But both sides have started to talk of compromise.

Interest rates: No action may be taken this year. The House Ways and Means Committee has come up with a compromise to Eisenhower's proposal for scrapping the present 4 1/2 per cent interest ceiling on long-term government bonds. It would give the President power, for two years only, to increase the ceiling.

Efforts to balance the budget still add up to a question mark.

Forest Fires Fan Oregon Grasslands

By The Associated Press
Fire swept over more than 30,000 acres of rural Oregon today, fanned across arid grass, range and timber lands by hot summer winds.

Winds of up to 15 miles per hour were forecast for today. "If the wind comes up we will not be able to catch the fire," said John C. Hunt, fire dispatcher for the Federal Bureau of Land Management. "In that case it will spread into the Fremont National Forest."

Hunt was talking about a fire that has covered between 20,000 and 30,000 acres of rangeland in southern Oregon, apparently caused by lightning.

A variety of accidents took at least 20 lives in Pennsylvania over the weekend. Most of the deaths occurred Sunday, including five in a four-vehicle wreck near Hazleton.

Ten died on the highways and three drowned.

Gas fumes, a fall down a flight of stairs, suffocation, an accident during an auto race and a freight train which struck a pedestrian caused the other deaths.

Under orders from President Eisenhower to press for quick settlement of the dispute, Finnegan was seeking some way to bridge industry and union leaders from their entrenched positions.

The union demands a wage increase and improved fringe benefits. The industry contends any boost in labor costs would be inflationary; wants to eliminate what it calls certain wasteful work practices. Steelworkers had been averaging $3.10 an hour.

The President has declined to invoke the Taft-Hartley Act to force reopening of the mills, or to appoint a government fact-finding board to study the issues and make recommendations — a procedure under the Taft-Hartley Act.

Two senators and two representatives Sunday criticized President Eisenhower's handling of the dispute.

Rep. Chester Bowles (D-Conn.) said in a TV interview the President should set up a fact-finding body to clear "the fog of propaganda" he said has left people confused about the basic issues.

In another TV interview, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) criticized what they termed President Eisenhower's pre-strike "hands-off" policy. They said he should have called a White House meeting to head off the walkout.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) said in a TV-radio show that a fact-finding board should be appointed, asserted a prolonged steel shutdown could hurt Republican chances in the 1960 election.

Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. today went to court for injunctions against the U.S. It seeks to restrain what it calls illegal picketing, claiming that some supervisory personnel is virtually "locked in" at plants in Aliquippa, Pa., and at Pittsburgh. The union denied the charges.

The corporation says the union will not permit employees to re-enter its plants once they leave. The union claims it has a list of persons, submitted to it by J&L, and has issued passes to necessary personnel to go in and out of the plants at will.

A hearing was set Tuesday morning at Beaver, Pa., in the Aliquippa plant case.

The Pittsburgh hearing will be held Thursday morning.

BABY DROWNS

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Darlene Vecchio, 3, of Pittsburgh, drowned in Thompson Bay on Presque Isle Peninsula over the weekend.

When a woman puts her foot down — if she's wearing those new pencil-slim high heels — she exerts five times as much pressure per square inch as a full-grown elephant does. Her weight is even greater, proportionately, than the weight of the Empire State Building on its foundation.

The ulcer isn't just a Madison Avenue ailment. Between 18 and 20 million Americans have ulcers.

Tip to bachelors: There's a big boom now in the mail-order sale of hairpieces. Prices range from $10 for a Hitler mustache to $400 for a full-rigged wig.

Whatever happened to cash money? Americans wrote 10 billion checks last year — more than 50 a person — and the number is increasing about one billion a year.

Prosperity item: One of every eight U.S. adults now has an investment in the stock market.

The average man hates the chore of shaving. But actually he spends only about 25 hours a year at it, far less than a stout lady spends getting into and out of her grille.

Our thrifty military: During an ordinary day at the Pentagon, its personnel—and visitors—consume 30,000 cups of coffee, 3,800 quarts of milk, and 7,000 soft drinks.

The odds that you may have the same fingerprints as someone else are 1 in 100 million. You develop these lifelong marks five months before you are born. Experts can fingerprint Egyptian mummies 5,000 years old. How would you like to find out you had the same fingerprints as a mummy?

Overheard in a restaurant here: "Look at it this way, Smith. You're as well off as I am in the things money can't buy."

Married women with little or no schooling have up to three times as many children as do wives with college degrees.

Safety hint: Accident studies have shown that major injuries could be reduced 30 per cent if car seat belts were widely used.

What article do men leave most often in hotels? Not their attaché cases, but their combs.

The nation is getting more sports-minded. Between 1925 and 1955 the number of public tennis courts and ice skating areas doubled, golf courses and bathing beaches trebled, and swimming pools quadrupled.

Yet, healthy as we are, some 60,000 patients enter American hospitals every day.

What's in a name? Well, one of the biggest agents in London for stripteasers is named Levittoff.

Do you know why most navies wear blue uniforms? Not because they match the color of the sea, but because in older times indigo was the only dye that could withstand the fading action of salt water and sun.

Marital advice: "Women are like money," say comics Phil Ford and Mimi Hines. "Keep them busy or they lose interest."

A survey showed that 70 per cent of U.S. grade school children depend on some other member of the family to shine their shoes, usually mom.

It was Friedrich Nietzsche who cautioned: "Distrust all in whom the impulse to punish is powerful."

School Head Says Junior Colleges Future Possibility

FRANKLIN—A community junior college serving Franklin, Oil City and Titusville areas, may be a necessity and a reality within the next five years, according to Dr. John R. Haubert, superintendent of Franklin Area Schools.

Dr. Haubert, speaking to the directors of his district this week, told them, "I predict that in five years, you will be in that type of business."

He explained that most colleges were filled to capacity and that in recent years number of Franklin High School graduates found it impossible to be accepted in an institution of higher learning.

He said the pressure was particularly great in securing college facilities for the "average" student. Most colleges are opening their enrollments for the above average student and closing the doors for those not in the upper percentages of high school graduating classes, he pointed out.

He said Michigan and a number of other states operated community colleges to provide facilities for students wishing to secure the first two years of higher education. Usually, dropouts at the major colleges prior to junior and senior years provide more enrollment possibilities than freshman and sophomore entries.

Defers Action on Replacement of Tionesta Bridge

HARRISBURG (AP) — Highway Secretary Park H. Martin said Thursday he would not commit himself on replacement of the 86-year-old Tionesta Bridge until the Legislature acts on the highway budget.

The department had requested a one-cent a gallon increase in gasoline taxes and a $2 increase in drivers' license fees to help finance a $91-million-dollar budget for the 1959-61 biennium.

"We have not been committing ourselves to projects publicly," Martin said. "If the legislators know about specific projects we would run into a hornets nest."

Rep. James K. Davis (R-) complained the bridge is in terrible condition, but a department spokesman disputed his claims.

The spokesman said metal rods (known as pedestals) were found to have slipped and were replaced. The district office reinspected the bridge when the work was completed and found it still safe for loads up to 10 tons, the limit in force previously.

"It has a timber deck in good, safe condition," he added. "It's one of 4,000 bridges in the state in the same shape."

Davis said he had been promised that the bridge would be replaced last year. Later, he said, the work was put off until this year.

The U. S. Bureau of Roads District Office here said the bridge, on the Federal primary road system, would be eligible for Federal aid when the state makes a formal request for aid. No request has been received up to date, the office added. It said however, that it has reviewed the preliminary design of the bridge "and pretty much approved" it.

As a primary system project, the Federal government would pay half the cost.

The highway's spokesman denied a published report that the steel bridge I-beam supports rusted and dropped more than two inches.

"We found on a routine inspection that the pedestals had slipped," he said. "They're the metal rods that pull the thing together. They were all replaced 10 days ago. It's still resting firmly on its piers."

Davis, Reps. Harry Gramlich (R-Venango) and George Magee (R-Crawford) and Ralph Merry (R-Crawford), have sponsored a house resolution asking that the Highway Department "take immediate and full steps toward an expeditious replacement" of the bridge. The resolution is in the rules committee awaiting action.

SUFFOCATES IN CRIB
JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Deborah Ann Hocking, 10-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hocking of Newark, N.J., suffocated in a crib at the home of an aunt in nearby Beaverdale Saturday. The coroner's office said the baby apparently got her head caught in the crib's frame, pushing her face into the mattress.

Girl Scout Roundup News

Girl Scout Roundup News by Times - Mirror Correspondent Barbara Ellis.

Eight tired, but excited Girl Scouts were greeted by parents and friends, as we arrived at the Jamestown Railway Station Thursday, July 16, at 8:45 a. m.

The Girl Scout Roundup in Colorado Springs, Colorado was truly an unforgettable experience. We will long remember the campfires, fun, and experiences we had at the Roundup. The friendships and values we gained will be lasting.

We wish to extend our thanks to these people who made possible our trip to the Roundup: Miss Sally Deisroth, Field Director of Warren-Forest Council—who was a wonderful trainer. Thanks to Sally we actually pulled through ten days of primitive camping!

Mrs. Donald Dalrymple, Mrs. Herbert Maasz, Mrs. Morgan, and Mrs. Robert Stewart who helped prepare us for the Roundup by teaching camping skills, phrases in foreign languages, food preparation and cooking, and first aid.

Miss Ursula Johnson, Executive Director of Warren-Forest Council, Mrs. Ralph Van Ord, Mrs. Ransom, the Girl Scout Council, and Roundup committees for all their help.

Our local scout leaders and the numerous persons and organizations who aided us in many ways.

To all we say "thank you for making it possible for us to realize such a wonderful experience as the 1959 Girl Scout Senior Roundup!"

ROCK 'N' ROLLER HURT — Fabian, 16-year-old rock 'n' roller from Philadelphia, has a patch put over his eye by a nurse in Los Angeles.
